251 WEST 99TH STREET

251 West 99th Street is a four-story single-family townhouse offering approximately 3,715 square feet, situated on a quiet, tree-lined block of Manhattan's Upper West Side.

The home features a south-facing façade that fills the interiors with natural light and retains many original details that reflect its pre-war character. Well-proportioned and thoughtfully laid out, the residence offers multiple living levels, high ceilings typical of the era, and generous flexibility for entertaining, everyday living, and home office use. A landscaped rear garden provides private outdoor space, as well as access to a larger garden at the Ariel West Condominium. There is potential to create a rooftop terrace, further enhancing the home's appeal.
